ARCHER & GREINER PC
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

John C. Connell Appointed to Supreme Court Committee on Evidence

Press Releases

04.08.2008

April 8, 2008

John C. Connell, a Partner/Shareholder in the Haddonfield, N.J., office of the law firm of Archer, P.C., has been appointed to the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on the Rules of Evidence.

Connell, of Haddonfield, was appointed last month to a term that runs through Aug. 31, 2009. He focuses his practice on complex civil commercial litigation, with concentrated experience in the areas of media and communications law, intellectual property, employment and civil rights law, health care law, and appellate advocacy.

The Committee on the Rules of Evidence has the task of recommending to the Court (a) amendments and additions to the Rules of Court, (b) policy statements (with respect to rules), and (c) suggestions for new legislation and statutory amendment as related to practice before the courts. The Court relies on the committee to provide well-reasoned, expert advice on matters within its general area of knowledge and responsibility.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 150 lawyers in six offices serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 75 years. The firm's principal office is in Haddonfield, N.J., with offices in Princeton and Flemington, N.J., Philadelphia, Pa., Wilmington, Del., and New York, N.Y. For more information visit www.archerlaw.com.

# #

Related People

John C. Connell

Partner

jconnell@archerlaw.com

856.354.3074

Related Services

- Appellate Practice
- Business Litigation
- Civil Rights Defense & Constitutional Litigation
- First Amendment & Media Communications Litigation
- Healthcare
- Intellectual Property
- Labor & Employment

© 2024 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.