Peter Frattarelli to Present at Hispanic Leadership Summit

Press Releases

09.18.2012

Attorney Peter L. Frattarelli, Chair of the Labor & Employment Law Department at Archer P.C. in Haddonfield, N.J., will participate on a panel that will discuss the federal health care reform law, a.k.a. "Obamacare," during the Hispanic Leadership Summit of New Jersey this Saturday, Sept. 22, at Rowan University in Glassboro, N.J. Archer is a sponsor of the event, which features several keynote speakers, including U.S. Senator Robert Menendez, as well as workshops, information booths, networking and opportunities to socialize. Held during Hispanic Heritage Month, the Summit's mission is to empower Hispanics/Latinos in New Jersey by facilitating civic engagement, inclusion, education and participation while promoting respect, multiculturalism and diversity understanding. More information and registration are available at http://www.hispanicleadershipnj.com.

Mr. Frattarelli has decades of experience in a wide range of labor and employment law matters, including counseling employers on the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and other employee benefits issues. He will be part of a panel of experts that will analyze the impact of the health care law and a U.S. Supreme Court ruling on it.

Mr. Frattarelli's extensive experience also includes labor and employment-related litigation in state and federal courts as well as before administrative agencies such as the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). He counsels and represents employers on the full array of labor and employment issues, ranging from day-to-day wage and salary issues up to actions and proceedings involving labor organizations.
