

Bankruptcy

Overview

Archer attorneys in the Bankruptcy Group counsel domestic and foreign clients throughout the United States and globally on insolvency matters. The group's members are strategically positioned in the busiest bankruptcy venues in the United States, including attorneys resident in Wilmington, Delaware, New York City and Houston, Texas. Archer's insolvency attorneys are sophisticated bankruptcy practitioners and litigators who are experienced in assessing client needs and quickly formulating an efficient and cost-effective plan of action. Group members frequently work with attorneys in complementary practices in the firm, which enables them to put together a comprehensive legal team capable of addressing a multitude of legal issues.

Our services include:
