News & Press

06.27.2013

David W. Carickhoff has joined Archer P.C. as a Partner in the firm's Bankruptcy Department, where he will concentrate on corporate bankruptcy and business reorganization matters. He will be based in the firm's Wilmington, Delaware office.

Mr. Carickhoff has more than 15 years' experience representing various chapter 11 debtors, creditors' committees, secured and unsecured creditors, shareholders and purchasers in bankruptcy proceedings and out-of-court restructurings. He has represented both large and small clients in a variety of industries, including energy, gaming, telecommunications, retail, biopharmaceutical and aerospace. Mr. Carickhoff's diverse background and experience provides further depth and expertise to the firm's bankruptcy practice. He is recognized by Chambers USA as a leading bankruptcy lawyer.

Mr. Carickhoff also represents various pro bono clients through the Delaware Office of the Child Advocate and Delaware Volunteer Legal Services, Inc.

Chambers calls Mr. Carickhoff a "diplomatic lawyer who has the experience to provide additional firepower to the practice." He is also "praised for his patient approach to clients, his understanding of the law and his ability to get results."

Mr. Carickhoff is a graduate of Haverford College and earned his law degree at Temple University Beasley School of Law.
