Steven K. Mignogna, a shareholder with Archer P.C. in Haddonfield, N.J., will be a featured speaker at the National College of Probate Judges Conference on November 12 and 13, 2015. Mr. Mignogna will present Seven Deadly Claims – a survey of unique estate and trust claims around the nation.

As estate and trust litigation intensifies around the country, a wave of novel claims has been evolving. Most trust and estate professionals need to be educated about these claims, yet may not know of them at all. This presentation will survey the seven most significant causes of action.

Mr. Mignogna, a resident of Voorhees, focuses his practice on commercial litigation, with a concentration on probate matters, estates, fiduciaries, guardianships and real estate. He has lectured and published extensively both locally and nationally. Mr. Mignogna is principal author of the treatise, Estate and Trust Litigation, and editor and contributing author of The New Jersey Estate Planning Manual and The New Jersey Probate Procedures Book, all published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.
