Press Releases

02.11.2016

Thomas A. Muccifori, a Shareholder in Archer's Haddonfield office,  recently presented and moderated the Burlington County Bar Association's 10th annual seminar, "Demystifying Chancery Practice." Mr. Muccifori is the head of the firm's Trade Secret Protection and Non-Compete Practice Group and Co-Chair of the General Equity section of the Burlington County Bar Association. Over 70 people attended to hear this year's panel of presiding Chancery judges, which included Hon. Paula Dow, P.J.Ch., Burlington County; Hon. Paul Innes, P.J.Ch., Mercer County; and Hon. Mark H. Sandson, P.J. Ch., Atlantic & Cape May Counties.

Along with tips for demystifying practice in the Chancery Division, attendees had the opportunity to hear each judge discuss their particular general equity and probate practices and procedures, including Orders to Show Cause and emergent applications such as TROs and varying Preliminary Injunctions. Among other topics discussed were actions that are, and are not, cognizable in Chancery; the proper way to present a TRO application by way of Order to Show Cause; being ready for trial; and getting your motion or trial heard on the busy Chancery docket.

The founder and Chair of Archer's Trade Secret Protection and Non-Compete Practice Group, Mr. Muccifori aggressively litigates business and employment disputes of all types both in Federal Court and the Chancery and Law Divisions in state court. He has gained nationwide experience in drafting, negotiating, counseling and litigating on behalf of employers, employees and others in the trade secret and restrictive covenant context.

Mr. Muccifori is rated AV[®] Preeminent[™] by Martindale-Hubbell; featured on the Top Attorney List, SJ Magazine; named an Awesome Attorney by South Jersey Magazine; a New Jersey "Super Lawyer;" and named by Inside New Jersey Magazine as "Top Legal Minds." Tom is one of a very few select attorneys in New Jersey with a rare perfect 10/10 AVVO rating.
