

Debra Rosen Honored by the Alice Paul Equality Awards

Press Releases

04.04.2016

Debra Rosen accepts her Alice Paul Equality Award, speaks of her parents encouragement to dream beyond gender.

Debra Rosen, a Partner in Archer's Haddonfield office, was an honoree at this year's Alice Paul Equality Awards. Sponsored by the Alice Paul Institute, the awards highlight the members of the Alice Paul Institute's Girls Advisory Council who introduced each of the honorees and spoke on the theme of this year's awards - "What do you stand for?" The awards honor individuals from any industry or field who capture the spirit of Alice Paul, a suffragist and equal rights activist, and as a consequence, either directly or indirectly, continue Alice's mission of advancing women's equality in America.

Ms. Rosen concentrates her practice in the area of complex environmental and toxic tort litigation and environmental due diligence and compliance, with an emphasis upon the defense of groundwater contamination cases involving claims for both property damage and serious personal injury. Ms. Rosen is a founding member and Co-Chairperson for the Archer Women Lawyer's Network, and a member of both Archer's Personnel Committee and the firm's Diversity Committee. In addition, she is active with the New Jersey Society of Women Environmental Professionals and a Vice President on the Executive Committee of the Garden State Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Honored along with Ms. Rosen were Kim Guadagno, Lieutenant Governor of New Jersey; Dana Redd, Mayor of City of Camden; Carli Lloyd, U.S. Women's Soccer World Cup Champion; Camelia M. Valdes, Passaic County Prosecutor; and Tracy Riley, Esq., Riley & Riley LLC.
