

Melissa Osorio Dibble Joins Samaritan Healthcare & Hospice Planned Giving Committee

Press Releases

04.10.2017

Melissa Osorio Dibble, an Associate in the firm's Litigation Department, recently joined the Planned Giving Committee of Samaritan Healthcare & Hospice, South Jersey's first and largest hospice organization, serving five counties in southern New Jersey. Ms. Dibble focuses her practice on estate and trust litigation and will utilize her years of experience in estate, trust and guardianship matters to help advance Samaritan Healthcare & Hospice's charitable mission.

Samaritan Healthcare & Hospice's Planned Giving Committee is a volunteer group of the region's leading financial professionals responsible for cultivating and soliciting current and future gifts to the organization that require the use of estate planning techniques or that have significant financial and tax consequences.

Ms. Dibble has handled all varieties of probate, general equity, and Orphans' Court accountings, will contests, breach of fiduciary duty actions, trust modifications, and matters involving the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act and the Slayer Statute. She has represented a variety of institutions and individuals, including banks, universities, executors, trustees, beneficiaries of estates and trusts, and intestate heirs. Ms. Dibble regularly speaks on recent developments in estate and trust litigation and has published articles on the doctrine of writings intended as wills and the Uniform Trust Code.

Samaritan Healthcare & Hospice is a not-for-profit, non-sectarian, independent organization accredited by The Joint Commission, a member of the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization (NHPCO), and NHPCO's We Honor Veterans program, created in collaboration with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Samaritan is the regional leader for hospice care, palliative (comfort) medicine, grief support and counseling, and end-of-life education, and advocacy.
