Register today for this informative annual program to hear some of New Jersey's leading authorities provide insight into the latest developments this year in their respective fields - from adoption of a New Uniform Trust Code, to use of a New Statewide Realtors contract of sale, a labor & employment and overtime regulations update, civil trial concerns, new changes for family law, plus a valuable ethical discussion of the intersection of ethics, technology and social media for attorneys.

Benefit from the experience and expertise of this panel, and quickly translate the knowledge you gain into effective strategies to handle a variety of cases. You'll take home a comprehensive seminar handbook that can serve as a useful resource in your practice.

This program will be of particular interest to general practitioners, new lawyers and attorneys seeking to expand into new practice areas.
