

Kerri Chewning To Speak At ABA Seminar, “Precision Advocacy: Reinventing Motion Practice To Win”

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

06.29.2017

Location: Newark, NJ

When: June 29, 2017 9:00AM- 11:30 AM

Where: Newark, NJ

Overview: This nationwide series, with each program moderated by Hon. Jeremy Fogel, Director of the Federal Judicial Center, or the Hon. John D. Bates, Chair of the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules, will tackle the challenge of making motions better. These national thought leaders will lead discussions with local judges and top plaintiffs’ and defense counsel, analyzing problems with current practice and offering new, better, and cutting edge approaches for resolving interlocutory disputes, including how to:

- Employ novel informal processes to narrow disputes or obviate having to file a motion
- Streamline motions to make them more efficient and powerful
- Focus the judge’s attention on what really matters
- Obtain faster decisions and better results

Judges and lawyers in attendance will leave with an array of new methods to upgrade motion practice, make motions and oppositions more effective, save time and reduce expense, enhance credibility, and lead to better outcomes for clients.
