Archer attorneys Jeffrey Kolansky, Jeffrey Scott and Eric Yun represented Bucks County in a FMLA suit recently brought before the Third Circuit. The case in which a three-judge panel affirmed Bucks County’s summary judgment win is detailed in the July 11 Law360 article, “3rd Circ. Upholds Pa. County’s Win In FMLA Suit.” Donald Jacobs sued the County of Bucks, its Chief Operating Officer, and its Solicitor, under the Family and Medical Leave Act (“FMLA”), 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and Pennsylvania’s Whistleblower Law. Bucks County and two of its employees were sued by Donald Jacobs, the county’s former chief information officer, over his firing.
