

Steven Mignogna to Present “Undue Influence: Will You Know It When You See It?”

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

01.23.2024

Presented by: Steven K. Mignogna

Location: Philadelphia, PA

Steven Mignogna, Chair of Archer’s Estate & Trust Litigation Group, will speak about undue influence at the Philadelphia Estate Planning Council’s January 2024 Luncheon Program. Information about the program is as follows:

Title: “Undue Influence: Will You Know It When You See It?”

When: Tuesday, January 23, 2024 from 11:45 AM - 1:45 PM.

Where: The Union League of Philadelphia, 140 S. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102.

Overview: The program will explore a subject vital to all professionals who deal with estates, trusts, gifts, and the elderly: how to ascertain when undue influence is occurring, and the facts needed prove it. This presentation will include fact patterns for different scenarios and explain how the evidence presented impacts these cases. The materials will provide detailed analyses of law and facts about the case studies from multiple jurisdictions. Attendees will come away more equipped to deal with the increasing, challenging – yet often overlooked – problem of undue influence.
