TOPICS:

Legal Update:

Case Decisions, Regulations and Legislation

Gary J. Lesneski, Esquire

Every year, courts and administrative bodies issue influential and often far-reaching decisions in the field of labor and employment law. This past year has been no exception. This presentation will highlight the key case decisions from New Jersey and federal courts, as well as offer updates on new federal and state laws and regulations that will impact your business.

Wage and Hour Claims:

What Was All the Fuss About?

Susan S. Hodges, Esquire

Over the past several years, a crushing tide of wage and hour claims and class action lawsuits was supposedly on the way, based on court decisions and the revised Federal Wage and Hour Regulations. This presentation will explain whether those floodgate predictions were true, and update what the legal landscape is now for wage and hour claims.

The Paperless Office: Exactly What Is The Law?

Peter L. Frattarelli, Esquire

The rapid growth of electronic communications and paperless offices has reached the courtroom—laws are finally developing as to what “electronic rights” employers and employees have in the workplace. This presentation will explain what every employer should know in setting up and managing their computer systems, including employee privacy rights and how long to keep those pesky computer files around.

Family and Medical Leave Overview: A Crash Course

David A. Rapuano, Esquire

The family and medical leave laws are the most commonly consulted, yet often most frequently misunderstood, among the alphabet soup of employment laws. This presentation will provide a “big picture” overview of what the FMLA is (and isn’t), and provide you with the basic principles employers must know to run their business.

Legal Update: Pending Legislation

James Leonard, Chief Lobbyist

No legal update is complete without an examination of what’s coming next. This presentation by the Chief Lobbyist for the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce will summarize pending legislation in New Jersey, including an insider’s “best guess” as to what bills employers can ignore, and what bills they should be worried about.
