1-B	The Latest and Greatest at SSA , Tyrone Benefield, Social Security Administration Topics will consist of the latest information on W-2 filing and how to reconcile W-2 data with the IRS.
1-C	Top Issues in Payroll Compliance – 2012 , Ellen Feeney and Elizabeth Mazza, ADP Being a payroll professional is more complicated than ever due to increasing compliance concerns. State and federal wage and hour laws, Health Care Reform and social media developments all require your attention. In this 1-hour presentation, you will be provided up-to-date compliance information and best practices to make certain that you have the knowledge you need today to be an effective payroll professional.

Workshop Session 2 11:20am – 12:20pm
2-A	IRS Update , CONFIRMATION OF SPEAKER PENDING Topic information pending
2-B	Digital ePayroll & the Future of Payments 2012 & Beyond , Brian Slowik, Wright Express-Rapid Paycards There are 21 million unbanked employees in the U.S. Paying these workers with checks are costly and cumbersome for the employer and the employees. Find out how and why many companies are replacing payroll checks with a paycard program. Topics will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demographics of the unbanked and under-banked population. • How payroll debit cards work, and how they end the need for checks and check-cashing fees. • Why there is typically zero cost to employers for implementing payroll debit cards. • Sample questions for evaluating payroll debit card solutions.
2-C	Electronic Income Withholding Order (e-IWO) Project , William Stuart, Federal Office of Child Support Enforcement Do you want to receive your Child Support Orders electronically, get them the next business day, and have them all look the same? If the answer to these questions is "yes" then you'll want to attend this session regarding the Federal Office of Child Support Enforcement's electronic Income Withholding Order (e-IWO) process. During this session you will learn what e-IWO is, why employers implement it, how it works, and what you'll need to do in order to participate.

Workshop Session 3 1:40pm – 2:40pm
3-A	Unemployment Tax Impact on 2012 and Beyond , Matthew White, TALX This session provides a broad overview of the national economy related specifically to unemployment costs. The session will review state trust fund solvency, current trends and the impact to employers. The information will also provide proactive guidance to employers related to rising unemployment tax costs in 2012 and beyond. Federal and state legislative trends will also be analyzed and discussed. In addition, unemployment cost minimization strategies will be reviewed to help employers control costs and forecast future tax rates.
3-B	Tips & Pointers for Conducting Process Improvement Projects , Thomas Sonde, Silver Road Solutions BPM, TQM, EPM, process mapping, continuous improvement, modeling, change management, and lean are just some of the buzz words currently in vogue. Rather than define buzz words this session is designed to provide practical every day tips for successfully implementing process improvement initiatives in your organization. The skills needed to be a good practitioner are not necessarily the same skills required to be successful in performing process improvement work. While some easily transition into process improvement project leaders other find it more difficult. This session will provide helpful tips for both you and your staff.

The Legal Year in Review- and What's Next

As payroll and HR functions continue to overlap, payroll professionals must keep up to date with the ever-evolving legal landscape affecting the workplace. In this seminar, we will explore the major legal changes in the past year that affect payroll professionals in a variety of areas, including wage & hour, independent contractors, benefits, and health care reform. We will then take a look into the crystal ball and determine what legal changes are looming on the horizon that we need to watch.
