Brittney A. Cafero focuses her practice in the area of Health Care Law. Ms. Cafero represents clients from all segments of the health care industry, including hospitals, nursing homes, long-term care facilities, ambulatory surgical centers, medical staffs, physicians, physician groups, and rehabilitation centers, among others, as well as individuals seeking advice and counsel. Ms. Cafero counsels clients on a variety of state and federal healthcare laws and regulations, including New Jersey licensing requirements, as well as Federal Stark laws, the State Codey laws, Federal Anti-Kickback laws, and both State and Federal False Claims laws. She assists clients with licensing needs and representation before professional boards, regulatory agencies and accrediting bodies. Her practice includes handling state and federal administrative appeals related to enforcement and recovery actions; licensing and certification applications and advice; managed care contracting and reimbursement issues; defending governmental allegations of health care fraud and abuse; nursing home survey and certification issues; corporate compliance advice and services, and home health and hospice agency compliance matters.

Prior to joining Archer, Ms. Cafero clerked for the Honorable J. Christopher Gibson, J.S.C., Superior Court of New Jersey, Civil Division. Ms. Cafero received a Juris Doctor degree from Rutgers Law School in 2015, and graduated with honors. During law school, Ms. Cafero served on the Executive Board of the Rutgers Journal of Law & Public Policy. Also, while in law school, Ms. Cafero interned for the Honorable L. Anthony Gibson, J.S.C. (ret.).
