Daniel is a member of Archer's Business Litigation Group and represents clients in all aspects of trial and appellate work relating to commercial litigation and business disputes. He has extensive experience handling many types of complex commercial litigation matters, including breach of contract litigation, breach of fiduciary duty and other tort matters, including claims under the false claims acts, corporate governance and shareholder rights litigation, civil rights litigation, construction litigation, and protection of trade secrets and unfair competition.

Prior to joining the firm, Dan was a judicial clerk for the Hon. Jack M. Sabatino, Presiding Judge, N.J. Superior Court, Appellate Division. Additionally, during law school, Dan worked as a legal extern for the Hon. Theodore A. McKee, Chief Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and was an intern for the Hon. Noel L. Hillman, U.S.D.J., U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey.
