For 40 years Bob has been engaged in jury trial litigation. His primary emphasis has been with Personal Injury related trial work in both State and Federal Courts. With a background in medicine and anatomy, he has specialized in the general areas of Insurance Litigation, Contract Interpretation, Workers' Compensation and a wide spectrum of bodily injury claims. He has been a Certified Civil Trial Attorney by the Supreme Court of the State of New Jersey from the original certification class in 1982 continuously to the present.

He is certified as a Mediator by the State of New Jersey and an Arbitrator by the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. He has a substantial practice in arbitrating and mediating a wide variety of cases designated by the Court and/or by fellow counsel.

Bob received his Bachelor's Degree in English from Gettysburg College in 1968 where he was Editor-in-Chief of the College newspaper. He received his Juris Doctor in 1971 from Rutgers University where he was a published editor of the Law Journal. He took a position at Archer in 1971 and has been a partner since 1976. Bob has been and continues to be active in both County and State Bar Associations serving at various times as a Trustee of the Camden County Bar Association and currently holding the position of Ombudsman. He was the Chair of the Executive Committee of the Civil Trial Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association. He was honored in 2007 with the James J. McLaughlin Professionalism Award by the Civil Trial Bar Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association.

Bob was a Trustee of the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey and an original founding member of the Camden Chapter of the American Inns of Court. He was an inaugural member of the American Board of Trial Advocates serving as Chapter President from 1992 – 1997.
