Sal was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and presently resides in Blue Bell, PA. Sal is a major thoroughbred horse owner and breeder in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; President of the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association at Philadelphia Park. Sal is also a member of the Board of Directors and Chairman of the Philly Pops. Sal is currently a member of the Board of Directors and Vice-President of the Longport Seaview Condo Association.

Sal has a diverse practice that spans a number of industries. He represents many of the firm's corporate, healthcare and media clients, as well as, significant private and family-owned companies, non-profit organizations, and certain horse ownership, racing interest and trade associations.

Sal brings over 50 years of legal and business experience to the table—including several significant positions with media and electronics companies. Some of Sal's major accomplishments in the legal profession include representing cable television franchisees in obtaining and negotiating cable franchises throughout many jurisdictions in the United States, including the representation and negotiation of the cable franchises for Greater Media, Inc. and Wade Communications, Inc. in the City of Philadelphia.

As counsel for the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, an organization that represents trainers and owners at Philadelphia Park in Bensalem, P.A., Sal was the primary drafter of the horsemen's sections of the Pennsylvania Slot Bill, signed in July, 2004.

In 1992, Sal founded a television show called, "Let's Go Racing." He is currently Executive Producer of the program, which appears weekly on Comcast Sportsnet, a cable television channel serving the Delaware Valley Region.
