Partner Thomas Muccifori, chair of Archer's Trade Secret Protection & Restrictive Covenants Group, was interviewed by Bloomberg Law about conflicting court rulings on the Federal Trade Commission's ban on noncompete agreements and the growing pressure for employers to scale back.

In the article, Tom provided insight about the growing scrutiny and public awareness surrounding noncompete agreements, saying, "companies are now being more judicious about which employees need to sign them, as well as how the restrictions are drafted." He added, "we're definitely seeing courts now scrutinize" the details of "each noncompete agreement more closely."
