

Maureen Coghlan Named to Board of Directors of Cathedral Kitchen

Press Releases

09.12.2024

Archer is pleased to announce that partner Maureen T. Coghlan has been named to the Board of Directors of Cathedral Kitchen. Cathedral Kitchen's mission is to help people out of food insecurity and champion their pursuit of stability and prosperity. The organization is the largest emergency food provider in Camden, NJ, serving more than 100,000 meals a year.

Maureen has achieved professional excellence in the legal community while she wears several hats at Archer. A complex civil litigation attorney, Maureen plays an integral role in Archer's Business Litigation Group, Environmental Litigation Group, and also serves as co-chair of the firm's NJ Local Court Practice. She is a member of the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey, New Jersey State Bar Association, and the Camden County Bar Association.

With a long history of community service, Maureen has served on numerous professional and community committees, including with Boy Scouts of America, Special Olympics of New Jersey, and the National Health Council. She also serves on the Board of Directors of BookSmiles, a nonprofit organization committed to promoting literacy and educational equity in communities facing socio-economic challenges.
