

John Connell Appointed to NJ Supreme Court Professional Responsibility Rules Committee

Press Releases

10.24.2024

Partner, John C. Connell, has been appointed to the New Jersey Supreme Court Professional Responsibility Rules Committee for the remaining portion of a three-year term that expires August 31, 2027. The Committee is charged with two tasks: to review and report on referrals from the court that relate to the Rules of Professionals Conduct, and also to entertain and act on issues raised by the Bench, the Bar, the Office of Attorney Ethics, or a member of the Committee.

John practices civil litigation as first-chair trial attorney in jury and bench trials and appeals in state and federal courts. John's clients range from Fortune 100 companies to individuals in an array of complex commercial, employment, civil rights, communications law, health care and intellectual property matters. John's work has resulted in precedential reported opinions on issues of constitutional jurisprudence, as well as statutory and common law.

Active in the legal industry throughout his career, John is also a member of the New Jersey Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on Public Access to Court Records and the Committee on the Rules of Evidence. He is also a member of the Due Diligence Committee (Judicial Appointment Review) of the Camden County Bar Association and the First Amendment Committee of the American Bar Association. John is on the Editorial Board of the New Jersey State Bar Association's New Jersey Lawyer Magazine, as well as on the Editorial Board of the New Jersey Law Journal.
