

Jeffrey Gordon Appointed Overall Chair for Prestigious IPT Annual Conference

Press Releases

11.12.2024

Archer partner, Jeffrey D. Gordon, Chair of the firm's Real Estate Tax Appeal Group, was appointed Overall Chair of the 2026 Institute for Professionals in Taxation ("IPT") Annual Conference. The 2026 Conference will mark the capstone of IPT's 50th year. Chairing IPT's 50th anniversary Annual Conference is one of the top honors one could achieve in the property tax field. In 2023, Jeffrey served as Chair of the IPT Annual Conference's Property Tax Committee.

The biggest national taxpayer group, IPT has been the premier professional organization dedicated to the education, certification, and ethical guidance of professionals specializing in property, sales & use, state income, and value-added tax, as well as credits and incentives. Serving more than 6,000 members representing approximately 1,200 corporations, firms, or taxpayers throughout the US and Canada, IPT has been at the forefront of industry standards, offering world-class educational opportunities.

Jeffrey focuses his practice on the prosecution of complex real estate tax appeals for the owners of major commercial and industrial properties, ensuring they pay only the amount in property taxes required by law. He obtains tax exemptions for redevelopment projects and handles eminent domain cases. Jeffrey helps non-profit clients obtain and retain their tax-exempt status and provides solutions that reduce liabilities to local taxing jurisdictions. He has achieved substantial tax savings for hundreds of corporate, business and residential clients, handling the litigation for all types of commercial, residential, industrial, and special property.

Jeffrey holds or has held positions as a Certified Tax Assessor, Chairman of the Taxation Section of the New Jersey Bar Association, Chairman of the State Bar's Property Tax Committee, Affiliate Member of the Appraisal Institute, and a member of the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on the Tax Court. He is a former New Jersey Tax Court law clerk.
