

A Big, Easy Guide to Recent Trends in Property Tax Exemptions

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

03.14.2025

Presented by: Alex Paul Genato

Partner Alex Genato will be presenting the program "A Big, Easy Guide to Recent Trends in Property Tax Exemptions" at the 2025 ABA/IPT Advanced Tax Seminar. Governments continue to seek ways to expand revenue collection while keeping their residential taxpayers happy. This program explores how varying property tax exemption statutes affect taxpayers operating across a range of industries.

After attending the session participants will be able to:

- Utilize information gleaned from recent cases and legislation to predict future obstacles to exemption
- Assess long-standing exemptions for potential attack and strategically advise clients on new and existing projects
- Apply recent lessons learned to practice
