

Initial Filing in Probate Court and Estate Timeline

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

06.09.2025

Presented by: Tara Hagopian Zane

Archer partner Tara Zane will be presenting the program “Initial Filing in Probate Court and Estate Timeline” at the National Business Institute’s seminar “New Jersey Probate Process from Start to Finish.” This seminar provides an all-inclusive guide to probate, as well as an update on the latest court procedures and tax laws.

Tara will be presenting the first steps in the probate and estate timeline. The program covers small estate administration, probate court procedures, estate timetable/checklist, formal vs. informal probate administration, opening the estate, what the personal representative need to know and do, and when ancillary administration is necessary.

Hear from experienced probate attorneys at additional programs, including Inventory and Appraisement, Handling Claims Against the Estate, Final Accounting and Closing the Estate and much more.
