

Litigation in Bankruptcy Cases

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

08.25.2025

Presented by: Douglas G. Leney

Archer partner Douglas Leney will be presenting the program “Litigation in Bankruptcy Cases” at the National Business Institute’s seminar “Tackling Complex Bankruptcy Cases: Secured Debt, Complex Assets, and More.” This seminar addresses the challenges practitioners face when handling complex bankruptcy cases.

Doug’s presentation will cover key adversary proceedings and contested matters, filing and defending motions for relief from stay, preference and fraudulent transfer litigation and the best practices for evidentiary hearings and trial strategy.

Other topics discussed in the seminar include:

- Complex secured debt in bankruptcy
- Treatment of unusual or difficult-to-liquidate assets
- Dealing with fraud and other bad-faith issues
- Complex asset exemptions and protection strategies
