Join Archer's Estate & Trust Litigation Group for our 13th Annual Estate Litigation Seminar, a complimentary program exploring the latest legal developments in trust, estate and fiduciary litigation.

We will present key updates in case law, examine challenges in handling matters involving diminished capacity, and offer unique legal perspectives through the lens of the film WIN WIN. This year's program will also include a focused discussion on the transformative role of Generative AI in estate litigation, including its practical applications and ethical considerations.

Attendees will leave with a deeper understanding of current issues impacting estate disputes and the tools needed to navigate them effectively.

Key Topics:

- Significant Developments in Trust and Estate Law During the Last Year
- Dealing with Marginal Capacity: Navigating Problems Facing Independent Adults in Cognitive Decline
- To Breach or Not to Breach - Excerpts from the movie, WIN WIN
- Generative AI in Trusts and Estates: An Overview Including Ethics and Practical Applications

Who Should Attend:

This seminar is ideal for estate litigators, trust and estate attorneys, fiduciaries, financial advisors, and anyone involved in estate administration or dispute resolution.
