Press Releases

09.19.2025

Archer partner Melissa Osorio Dibble was recently reappointed as a member of the Leadership and Mentoring Committee and Co-Chair of the Professional Responsibility Committee of the American Bar Association Section of Real Property, Trust and Estate Law for the 2025-2026 bar year. A long-term active member of the Section, she has also served as Co-Chair of the Ethics and Malpractice Committee and Co-Chair of the Probate & Fiduciary Litigation Committee in the Litigation, Ethics and Malpractice Group.

In her practice, Melissa handles a wide range of probate, general equity, and Orphans' Court matters, including will contests, breach of fiduciary duty actions, trust modifications, and matters involving the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act. She has represented a variety of institutions and individuals, including banks, universities, executors, trustees, beneficiaries of estates and trusts, and intestate heirs.

Melissa is a Fellow of The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) and a member of ACTEC's Diversity, Equity and Inclusivity Committee. She is also a past president of the Estate and Financial Planning Council of Southern New Jersey. Within the community, Melissa serves on the Board of Trustees of Samaritan.
