

Communicating Data Center Growth: Industry Strategies for Community Engagement in Pennsylvania

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

12.03.2025

Presented by: Richard T. Wells

As Pennsylvania becomes a hub for new data center development, this growth presents exciting opportunities, along with unique challenges. Join partner Richard Wells and a panel of leading industry experts for a deep dive into the dynamic world of data centers. This program will explore how data centers are driving economic growth, job creation, and infrastructure development in Pennsylvania. Panelists will address key issues facing the industry, including community engagement, navigating zoning and permitting hurdles, and responding to concerns from local residents.
