Speaking Engagements & Seminars

01.20.2026

Presented by: Gianfranco A. Pietrafesa

---

Gianfranco Pietrafesa will be a presenter at National Business Institute's comprehensive program on advising businesses from formation through dissolution. Designed for both practitioners new to the field and seasoned attorneys looking for a timely refresher, this seminar offers a practical, end-to-end look at the legal and strategic considerations that shape the business lifecycle.

Participants will gain a deeper understanding of post-reform entity selection, best practices in structuring ownership transfers, and the essentials of drafting effective business contracts. The program also addresses emerging technology issues and the challenges they present for today's business owners.

Topics include:

- Key tax and non-tax considerations in choosing the right entity structure
- Navigating LLC formation, transfers, and dissolution
- Drafting and negotiating commonly used business contracts
- Understanding the top technology issues affecting businesses
