

Julia Fahl Named to Governor-elect Mikie Sherrill's Interdisciplinary Advisory Task Force

Press Releases

12.17.2025

Archer Public Affairs (APA) is proud to share that APA Director Julia D. Fahl has been appointed to Governor-elect Mikie Sherrill's Interdisciplinary Advisory Task Force, a broad coalition of leaders from across New Jersey assembled to provide real-world perspective as the incoming administration shapes policy priorities.

Members of the Interdisciplinary Advisory Task Force represent labor, business, veterans, healthcare, education, the environment, and other critical sectors. Task Force members will participate in listening sessions and briefings with the Governor-elect's transition team, ensuring that major initiatives are informed by diverse perspectives and grounded in how policies affect communities across every region of the state.

Julia brings nearly two decades of political experience in federal, state, and local government. At APA, she leverages her public- and private-sector expertise to manage high-visibility issues across numerous industries, representing clients' interests throughout New Jersey and the broader region. Her appointment to the Interdisciplinary Advisory Task Force reflects APA's deep commitment to public service and its role at the forefront of policy, advocacy, and leadership in the region.

An affiliate of Archer, Archer Public Affairs provides full-service government and regulatory affairs advice and advocacy to businesses across New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware.
