

NY Department of State Publishes Forms for NY LLC Transparency Act

Client Advisories

01.05.2026

By: Gianfranco A. Pietrafesa

As a follow-up to our recent client advisory on the New York LLC Transparency Act (the “NYLTA”), which became effective on January 1, 2026, the New York Department of State has published its form of Initial Beneficial Ownership Disclosure. Also, it has published a list of exemptions from disclosure and a form of Initial Attestation of Exemption. Finally, it has published filing instructions, Frequently Asked Questions, and a form of governmental agency Request to Access Beneficial Owner Information.

As noted in our recent client advisory, the NYLTA has been limited to foreign (meaning, non-U.S.) LLCs authorized to do business in New York.
