

Eric Yun Assumes Prominent Roles in Legal and Civic Institutions

Press Releases

02.17.2026

Partner Eric I. Yun, Co-Chair of Archer's Immigration and Global Mobility Practice, has been appointed Vice President of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Pennsylvania (APABA-PA) and has joined the Board of Trustees of the League of Minority Voters.

As Vice President of APABA-PA, Eric will help lead one of the Commonwealth's leading organizations dedicated to supporting Asian Pacific American attorneys and promoting diversity within the legal profession. In his new role with the League of Minority Voters, he will contribute to efforts focused on increasing civic participation and empowering underrepresented communities.

Eric's expanded leadership underscores his dedication to strengthening both the legal profession and broader community engagement initiatives across Pennsylvania.

Eric has a diverse, cross-disciplinary practice encompassing immigration and litigation. Eric represents employers and individuals engaged in commerce in the United States, guiding clients through the gamut of immigrant and non-immigrant visa application processes and compliance issues. Additionally, Eric brings his considerable complex litigation experience to bear on the resolution of immigration-related disputes.
