

Archer Welcomes Daniel Hong

Press Releases

02.23.2026

Archer is pleased to announce that Daniel Hong has joined the firm as an associate in its Corporate and Tax Groups in the firm's Philadelphia office. Daniel advises clients on a broad range of corporate, transactional, and tax matters. His practice focuses on corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, commercial contracts, and general corporate advisory services. He regularly assists private and public companies, startups, entrepreneurs, and nonprofit organizations with entity formation, corporate structuring, due diligence, contract drafting and negotiation, and regulatory compliance.

Prior to joining Archer, Daniel practiced at two Pennsylvania regional law firms. He also served as an adjunct professor at Cairn University, where he taught business law.

Daniel is a veteran of the United States Army National Guard, where he served as a 25Q Multi-Channel Transmission Systems Operator in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania. He specialized in military communications systems and participated in the January 2021 Presidential Inauguration support mission at Capitol Hill, for which he received an excellence award.

Daniel earned his LL.M. in Taxation from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law, his J.D. from Liberty University School of Law and his B.A. from Queens College.
