Lisa Stewart Albright Named to South Jersey Biz's 2026 Women to Watch List

Press Releases

02.25.2026

Partner Lisa Stewart Albright has been named to the 2026 edition of South Jersey Biz's Women to Watch list. This prestigious recognition honors women leaders in philanthropy, finance, law, marketing, healthcare, and other industries who are making a meaningful impact across South Jersey. According to South Jersey Biz, this year's Women to Watch share a common goal: to lead by example and use the lessons they've learned to help not only themselves, but also those around them, reach their full potential.

Lisa has dedicated her career to strengthening the region's healthcare community. For more than 20 years, she has advised hospitals, long-term care facilities, and physician practices on complex regulatory, compliance, and transactional matters, helping local providers navigate evolving federal and state healthcare laws while continuing to serve their communities. From guiding healthcare mergers and joint ventures that expand access to care, to advising on HIPAA, EMTALA, Stark, and Anti-Kickback compliance, Lisa plays a critical role in supporting the stability and growth of South Jersey's healthcare infrastructure.
