Archer & Greiner (“Archer”) is pleased to announce that Martyn S. Babitz has joined the firm as Of Counsel in its Private Wealth, Estates & Trusts practice in the Voorhees office. Marty brings nearly four decades of experience in legal practice and wealth management, with extensive experience in estate, tax, wealth transfer, and philanthropic planning for high-net-worth individuals, multigenerational families, and closely held business owners.

Marty previously practiced with Archer early in his career and now returns to the firm, bringing a distinctive perspective from his senior wealth planning and leadership roles at leading financial institutions, including BNY Wealth, Hawthorn, PNC Family Wealth, Brown Brothers Harriman, and PNC Wealth Management.

“We’re thrilled to have Marty returning to Archer,” said Steven Mignogna, Co-Chair of Archer’s Private Wealth, Estates & Trusts Group. “He is widely respected for his work in trusts and estates and for the sophisticated counsel he provides to clients. His insight, extensive experience, and collaborative approach strengthen our team and position us well to meet the evolving needs of our clients.”

Marty advises clients on all aspects of wealth transfer, including the design and implementation of strategies to minimize income, estate, gift, and generation-skipping transfer taxes. His practice also encompasses business succession planning, charitable and philanthropic structuring, and the integration of estate planning with broader investment and governance strategies.

In addition, Marty provides guidance to closely held business owners on tax-efficient pre-sale planning and merger and acquisition transactions, working closely with clients and their advisors to optimize outcomes and mitigate tax exposure.

“Returning to Archer is especially meaningful to me, and I’m excited to rejoin a firm with such a strong commitment to client service,” said Marty. “The Private Wealth, Estates & Trusts Group offers an exceptional platform and a thoughtful, integrated approach to advising clients. Helping individuals, families and business owners navigate complex planning decisions has been the focus of my career, and I look forward to continuing that work and serving our clients as part of the Archer team.”
