

Anthony Talarico Earns Certification as Criminal Trial Attorney by New Jersey Supreme Court

Press Releases

05.07.2026

Archer & Greiner (“Archer”) is proud to announce that Anthony C. Talarico has been certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a Criminal Trial Attorney, a prestigious distinction achieved by fewer than two percent of attorneys in the state.

Certification by the New Jersey Supreme Court is granted only to attorneys who demonstrate a high level of experience, education, knowledge, and skill in criminal trial practice. The rigorous process includes substantial first-chair trial experience, extensive peer review by judges and attorneys, and successful completion of a comprehensive written examination.

A seasoned lead trial lawyer, Anthony represents corporate clients and individuals in criminal defense matters, government and regulatory investigations, and high-impact business litigation. This certification reflects Anthony’s continued commitment representing individual and corporation clients in crisis.

Anthony joined Archer following more than a decade of distinguished service as a criminal law prosecutor, most recently serving as Chief Assistant Prosecutor at the Bergen County Prosecutor’s Office. As Chief of the Major Crimes Unit, he supervised the prosecution and investigation of homicides, fatal accidents, arsons, and other serious offenses in New Jersey’s most populous county. Notably, he was the youngest homicide chief in nearly 50 years and oversaw more than 100 active investigations at any given time, including trials, complex investigations and policy matters.

Anthony’s commitment to trial practice is reflected in this certification, which further supports his work on behalf of clients.
