

Archer Expands Business Litigation Group with Addition of Partner PJ Farinella

Press Releases

06.23.2026

Archer today announced that PJ Farinella has joined the firm as a partner in its Business Litigation Practice Group, based in the Voorhees office. With a practice focused on complex commercial litigation, PJ's arrival underscores the firm's continued investment in expanding the depth, breadth, and sophistication of its litigation platform.

PJ is an accomplished commercial litigator with extensive experience representing companies across a broad range of industries in business disputes in state and federal courts throughout the country. His practice includes breach of contract claims, fraud matters, insurance coverage and insurance-related disputes, products liability litigation, construction defect claims, environmental matters, and professional negligence cases.

"PJ is a highly skilled litigator whose experience handling sophisticated commercial disputes and fraud-related matters will be an immediate asset to our clients," said Mark Oberstaedt, Chair of Archer's Business Litigation Group. "His experience is highly complementary to our strategic priorities and will further strengthen our ability to serve clients facing high-stakes business challenges."

"I'm excited to be a part of Archer and to join a team known for its deep litigation experience, collaborative approach, and commitment to client success," said PJ. "This is a tremendous opportunity, and I'm looking forward to partnering with my colleagues across the firm to continue delivering exceptional results for my clients."

Before joining Archer, PJ was a commercial litigation partner at a Philadelphia-based, multinational Am Law 100 firm. PJ earned his J.D. from Rutgers Law School.
