

Archer Welcomes Mark Umansky to Business Litigation Group in Philadelphia

Press Releases

07.02.2026

Archer is pleased to announce that Mark A. Umansky has joined the firm's Business Litigation Group as an associate in its Philadelphia office.

Mark focuses his practice on corporate and commercial litigation, representing businesses and individuals in state and federal courts across a broad range of complex disputes. His experience includes matters involving breach of contract claims, business torts, shareholder, member, and partnership disputes, fiduciary duty claims, trade secret litigation, unfair competition, employment matters, commercial real estate disputes, and other sophisticated commercial litigation.

Prior to joining Archer, Mark was an associate at a Montgomery County, Pennsylvania law firm, where he concentrated on commercial litigation. During law school, he served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Magistrate Judge Elizabeth T. Hey of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Mark earned his J.D. from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law and his B.A., cum laude, from Rutgers University.
