

Alex Genato Appointed Vice-Chair of the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on the Tax Court

Press Releases

07.17.2026

Archer is pleased to announce that partner Alex Paul Genato has been appointed Vice-Chair of the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on the Tax Court for the 2026–2028 term, effective September 1, 2026. Alex previously served multiple terms as a member of the Committee and now begins his first term as Vice-Chair. The Committee is comprised of members of the bench and tax bar, as well as representatives of taxpayers' groups, local, county, and state tax administrators, and others involved in the administration and review of New Jersey's tax laws. The New Jersey Supreme Court relies on the Committee to provide well-reasoned, expert advice on matters within its area of responsibility.

Alex concentrates his practice in the areas of local property taxation, eminent domain, redevelopment, and state tax matters. He has extensive experience handling complex commercial and industrial property tax appeals and advising clients on property tax issues, liabilities, exemptions, and farmland assessment qualification. Throughout his career, he has represented clients in property tax matters across New Jersey and numerous other states.

Active in the legal community, Alex is a former Chair of the Taxation Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association and currently serves as Vice Chair of the Property Tax Committee of the American Bar Association's Real Property, Trust and Estate Law Section. He is also a frequent speaker on topics related to property taxation and real estate tax appeals.
