Archer is proud to announce that partner Steven K. Mignogna, Chair of the firm's Estate and Trust Litigation Group, and Co-Chair of the Private Wealth, Estates & Trusts Group, has been recognized in the prestigious 2026 Chambers High Net Worth Guide for Private Wealth Disputes. Steven is ranked in New Jersey for Estate and Trust Litigation.

The Chambers High Net Worth Guide recognizes the leading law firms and advisors serving high-net-worth individuals and families. Based on independent research and client feedback, the guide is widely regarded as a benchmark of excellence in the private wealth sector. An explanation of Chambers' ranking methodology is available here.

This recognition underscores Steven's standing as one of the leading attorneys in private wealth disputes and reflects his extensive experience handling complex litigation involving estates, trusts, probate matters, fiduciaries, guardianships, and real estate issues. He has earned a national reputation through his successful representation of clients in trial and appellate courts. Steven represents a broad range of clients, including banks, corporate fiduciaries, charitable organizations, and individuals such as beneficiaries, executors, trustees, guardians, and surviving spouses.

Throughout his career, Steven has authored extensively, including the treatise Estate and Trust Litigation. He is also a sought-after speaker, presenting for numerous professional organizations, including the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC), the Heckerling Institute, the National College of Probate Judges, and the American Bar Association.

Steven serves on the Advisory Committee of the Heckerling Institute. He is a Fellow of ACTEC and serves on its Executive Committee, and has held several leadership roles, including New Jersey State Chair, member of the Board of Regents, Chair of ACTEC's Fiduciary Litigation Committee, and Co-Chair of its Damages Subcommittee. He is also highly active in the American Bar Association's Real Property, Trust and Estate Law

Section, where he has held leadership roles in various groups, including serving as Chair of the Litigation, Ethics, and Malpractice Group.
