Presented by: Matthew M. Nicodemo

Trust and estate litigation presents unique evidentiary challenges at every stage of a case, from initial client retention through trial. In this NJSBA program, Matthew Nicodemo will join fellow panelists to discuss the practical application of the New Jersey Rules of Evidence and the evidentiary issues trust and estate practitioners encounter throughout the litigation process.

Key topics include:

- Overview of the New Jersey Rules of Evidence
- Documents
- Authentication
- Fact witnesses and experts
- Evidentiary objections
- Dead Man's Statute
- Common interest privilege
- Subpoena process for depositions and trial and service of out-of-state witnesses
- Managing your client
