

Archer & Greiner Welcomes 2026 New Associate Class

Press Releases

09.14.2026

Archer & Greiner, P.C. ("Archer") is pleased to announce that six associates have joined the firm as members of its 2026 new associate class. The incoming associates will practice across the firm's Voorhees, Hackensack, and Red Bank offices. Each member of this year's class brings strong academic credentials, valuable legal experience, and a commitment to client service that reflects the firm's values. Their arrival deepens the firm's bench across key practice areas and reinforces its investment in developing the next generation of legal talent.

"We are proud to welcome our 2026 new associate class to Archer & Greiner," said Marc Rollo, Archer president. "Their experiences in law school, judicial clerkships, law-firm and other legal settings have given them a strong foundation as they begin their careers. We look forward to their contributions and to supporting their development and continued growth as members of our team."

"Developing talented attorneys is an important investment in the long-term strength of Archer & Greiner," said Deborah Hays, chair of Archer. "Our new associate class represents the next generation of the firm, and we are committed to providing them with opportunities to learn from our attorneys, develop their skills, and grow within the firm. We are excited to welcome them and to see their careers take shape at Archer."

Archer's 2026 new associate class includes:

Voorhees

- Mia Arbona: Business Litigation, Rutgers Law School
- Benjamin Cornelius: Land Use, Penn State Dickinson Law
- Kristina Goshorn: Estate & Trust Litigation, Rutgers Law School

Red Bank

- Jacob Prince: Real Estate, Rutgers Law School

Hackensack
