

How the New NJ LLC Amendment Became Law

Articles

10.16.2026

In this article, written for the Commerce and Industry Association of New Jersey, partner Gianfranco A. Pietrafesa explains the legislative journey behind New Jersey's new law permitting LLCs to terminate registered alternate names before the end of their five-year registration term.

Drawing on his firsthand experience drafting and advocating for the legislation, Gianfranco traces the bill's path through the New Jersey Legislature and the revisions that ultimately led to its passage. Signed into law on October 8, 2026, the amendment brings greater flexibility to New Jersey LLCs.
