

Hot Trends in Estate Litigation 2026

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

12.14.2026

Presented by: Anthony R. La Ratta

Estate litigation is constantly evolving. Knowing the latest trends and developments can often mean the difference between winning or losing the cases you handle. Archer partner Anthony La Ratta will be a speaker at the NJSBA's annual seminar on hot trends in estate litigation.

Attendees will hear a comprehensive review of the recent cases you need to know, and their significance to your estate planning and estate litigation practices. This esteemed panel, including a retired judge and two attorneys who specialize in estate litigation, will share their perspectives and experience and will provide you with strategies you can apply to the cases you are handling.

Learn all the latest developments that you need to know in estate litigation, including:

- How has estate litigation changed in the last 12 months?
- What are the key issues you need to know to remain successful in 2026 and beyond?
- What are the key strategies you need to know to avoid litigation and defeat challenging opponents?
- If you have to go to court, what are the most effective approaches to take in your advocacy?
