Probate and Estate Disputes: Effective Use of ADR

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

12.09.2026

Presented by: Gregory J. Palakow

Probate and estate disputes often involve a challenging combination of legal complexity, competing interests, and deeply personal family dynamics. Archer partner Greg Palakow will speak at the New Jersey State Bar Association's ADR Day 2026, discussing the effective use of alternative dispute resolution in contested estate matters, strategies for managing competing interests, and approaches to helping parties reach practical resolutions.

The NJSBA's ADR Day 2026 brings together experienced mediators, arbitrators, in-house counsel, retired judges, and plaintiff and defense attorneys for a day of practical strategies and diverse perspectives. From a live mock mediation to breakout sessions tailored by practice area, the program is designed to sharpen dispute resolution skills and strengthen client outcomes at every stage of the process.
