Navigating the “Double-Dip” and Other Complex Alimony Scenarios

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

01.03.2027

Presented by: Marie E. Lihotz

Marie Lihotz will participate as a featured presenter at the New Jersey State Bar Association’s annual Family Law Symposium, joining a distinguished group of judges, attorneys, and finance professionals in an in-depth discussion of current developments and complex issues in family law. In her session, Marie will address challenging financial considerations that can arise in alimony matters, including the intersection of income, business valuation and support obligations. Panelists will offer insight into the legal and financial nuances involved in these cases and the considerations that shape effective advocacy and sound decision-making.
