Overview

Before joining Archer, Vincent served as the Camden County Prosecutor from July 2002 to March 2006. While Prosecutor, then-New Jersey Attorney General, Peter C. Harvey directed Vincent to supersede the management, administration and operation of the Camden Police Department, making him the only Prosecutor in New Jersey responsible for supervising a major urban police department. Prior to being named Prosecutor, Vincent was a partner for 14 years in the law firm of Sarubbi and Sarubbi in Audubon, N.J., where he gained extensive litigation experience in many areas of law.

Vincent served as the First Vice President for the New Jersey State Prosecutors from September 2005 to March 2006. He is also a former member and director of the Camden County Board of Chosen Freeholders. As Freeholder Director, Vincent was involved in the planning and development of a recycling and waste disposal program; negotiations regarding a sports arena and with professional sports teams; the creation of a “county store” designed to make county services accessible to residents; and the oversight of the Department of Public Safety, Pollution Control Finance Authority and Camden County Municipal Utilities Authority.

Vincent has held a variety of public legal posts in towns throughout Camden County, including appointments as a Municipal Prosecutor, Municipal Public Defender, Planning Board Solicitor and Special Counsel to the Camden County Board of Adjustment. He was formerly Law Secretary to the late D. Donald Palese, a State Superior Court Judge in Camden.
