Overview

A highly responsive and knowledgeable advocate, Michael focuses his practice in the area of commercial litigation in New Jersey and New York state and federal courts. He handles a variety of matters including contract disputes, non-compete litigation, business tort claims, and shareholder disputes. Michael also has experience handling commercial landlord/tenant disputes and employment matters. Michael is highly valued for his ability to put a strategy in play that considers all options for a successful outcome. He always looks for the calm in the storm and helps clients navigate through difficult situations with as little stress as possible. Michael is also sought after for appellate representation. He has successfully briefed and argued appellate matters before the Appellate Division of the New Jersey Superior Court.

Easy to work with, Michael takes great pride in building close working relationships with his clients. He approaches each case with his clients' goals top of mind helping them take the shortest possible route to resolution, so they can get back to doing business.

Following law school, Michael served as law clerk to the Honorable Roger W. Daley, J.S.C. (Ret.) in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Middlesex County.
