Overview

Dan strives to provide each of his clients with strategic, practical, and sound advice. He represents a wide variety of clients, including national residential developers, public entities, and small and medium-sized businesses in all aspects of trial and appellate work. Through this work, Dan has worked with and advised clients on issues and claims relating to breach of contract, construction defect, employment and civil rights, protection of trade secrets and unfair competition, and a variety of other business disputes in federal and state courts. Dan also serves as Assistant-General Counsel to the firm.

Prior to joining the firm, Dan was a judicial clerk for the Hon. Jack M. Sabatino, Presiding Judge, N.J. Superior Court, Appellate Division. Additionally, during law school, Dan worked as a legal extern for the Hon. Theodore A. McKee, Chief Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and was an intern for the Hon. Noel L. Hillman, U.S.D.J., U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey.
