Overview

Andrew is an experienced litigator who represents clients in a broad range of matters, with an emphasis on complex civil litigation, including business disputes, contracts, and product liability. He represents clients in all stages of litigation, including pre-litigation investigations, trial, and appeals in state and federal courts in New Jersey and New York. Prior to joining Archer, Andrew was Of Counsel at a full-service law firm handling a broad range of litigation, and has extensive experience in general liability, product liability, and commercial litigation. He has represented clients as, both, plaintiffs and defendants in several industries, including automotive, cosmetics, pharmaceutical, manufacturing, and construction.

Andrew enjoys his practice because no two cases are alike. He prides himself on becoming intimately familiar with the unique facts of each case and believes that the key to achieving the best results for clients is learning everything there is to know about a case.

Andrew began his legal career as a law clerk to the Hon. Thomas F. Brogan, P.J.Cv., Superior Court of New Jersey – Passaic Vicinage. Prior to entering the practice of law, Andrew worked for a global marketing firm, primarily focusing on the pharmaceutical industry. It was his experience working within the confines of those strict industry regulations that sparked his interest in the law.
